Federal Opportunities

Traumatic Brain Injury Protection and Advocacy Grants. The Department of Health and Human Services, Health Resources and Services Administration announces funds to provide services to individuals with traumatic brain injury. Services may include information, referrals and advice; individual and family advocacy; legal representation and specific assistance in self-advocacy. Eligible applicants include State Protection and Advocate systems. The deadline is June 14, 2002. States are eligible for $50,000 each. Contact Betty Hastings at (301) 443-5599 or bhastings@hrsa.gov. Also see <http://mchb.hrsa.gov/grants/default.htm>. This grant is subject to "Inter-governmental Review" under EO 12372.

Statewide Legal Hotlines Program. The Department of Health and Human Services, Administration on Aging announces funds to establish, or expand or improve legal hotlines aimed at advancing the quality and accessibility of the legal assistance provided to older persons. Public agencies and nonprofit, faith-based and community-based organizations are eligible. The deadline is August 5, 2002. Approximately 8 awards will be made for $175,000 each. Grantees are required to provide a 25% non-federal match. For more information, contact (202) 619-1058. Also see <http://www.aoa.gov/t4/>.

Foundation Opportunities

For All Kids. Rosie O'Donnell's For All Kids Foundation supports nonprofit 501(c)3 organizations that provide child care, health care, education and other programs for at-risk and economically disadvantaged children in underserved communities. Letters of intent for the Fall funding cycle are currently being accepted. Awards usually range from $5,000 to $15,000 each.
